

1

2

- Aim to improve health information literacy of teens in North Texas
- Funded and aligned with mission of National Networks of Libraries of Medicine

3

Evidence of Need

- CDC identified adolescent health issues

 • Sexual health

 - Substance use
 - Violence
 - Mental health
- 70% teens use internet as first source of health information
- Have limited e-health literacy
 Searches return huge volumes of information
 - Lack skills to distinguish reliable from unreliable health information

4

WebLitLegit Goals

- Locate and understand reliable health information found on the Internet.
- Appraise health information resources found on the Internet.
- Effectively apply the information obtained to make health care decisions
- Actively participate in health care consultations through the AskMeThree®

5

6

Future Directions				7/2
01	02	03			(
Added Covid-19 Websites	WebLitLegit for Kids 10- 13 years-old	WebLitLegit for Senior Citizens	10	Days.

7